THE REPORTED SHOOTING ON A RIVER STEAMER. - The Washington Star, in speaking of the reported shooting of a woman last Sunday on the steamer George Leary, on her way from Norfolk to this city, says :

"We are informed that there was no shooting ffair on the steam or at all, but that Dr. Loon and a weman known as Sue Black had been necupying a stateroom: that on the way up during the absence of Leon a party named Morris took the woman to his room and left her there, and about 5 o'clock, when Morris returned to his room, Leen followed him and was about to attack Morris, when the woman attacked him and several blows were struck. Leon seized the woman by the threat. At this point officers of the boat promptly interfered and checked any further hestilities. A special officer of the hoat took charge of Loop | who represented Miss Black as his wife | and the officers of the boat kept the entire party under surveillance until their arrival here.'

POLICE ITEMS .- J. T. Beckham, esq , Presi dent of the Common Council presided at police headquarters to day.

George Fisher, living in Price's alley, for heating his wife, Nancio Fisher, a deaf and damb weman, to whom he was married in Stanaton, Va., was fined $2 50 and discharged. The case of James Webster, colored, arrested on complaint of the city surveyor for building a house on the corner of Priceses and Henry streets, for G. S. Swan, of Washington, without first ascertaining the proper lines, was con tioned until Saturday next.

John Bennett, of Fairfax, who was summoned before Justice Thompson, this morning. and who acted in a disorderly manner in the office of that justice, was locked up for contempt of court, but was afterwards released upon anologizing for his conduct.

PREPARING FOR THE WASHINGTON PARADE. The democratic readjuster club held a meeting at their headquarters on King street last night, with Major Edgar L. Brockett in the chair, for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the torch light procession and mass meeting in Washington on the night of the 26th instant. The invitation having been previously accepted, it was decided to attend in a body, and carry with them the torches and transparencies used by the club in the late procession in this city. One of the ferry boats has been chartered for the occasion, and all citizens intending to support the regular demogratic electoral ticket are isvited to accompany the club on their excursize. The executive committee of the club will meet to night, and the c'ab will meet again to morrow night to hear the report of the committee appointed at the meeting last night,

FALLS CHURCH REPUBLICANS -The republiesus of Falls Church and surrounding country indulged in a ratification meeting and torch light procession Tuesdaynight. Mr. De Patron. presided, and A. J. Cory, of Onio, and Joseph M. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, made addresses. Both speakers asserted that by reason of the defection in the democratic ranks, the vote of Virginia would be cast this time for Garfield and Arthur. Mr. Cery attempted to show how the people under republican rule had become resperous and happy and how suic dal it would he to hand the country over to the party of teres, fraud and oppression. Mr. Wilson said that there was no feeling of hatred to the South, but we would that our "wayward sisters" were as happy, as prosperous and as free as we are at the North.

PERSONAL - Charles W. Pleasants who left this city when he was a boy, and is now a lawyer in active practice in New York, is here on a visit to his uncle C. W. Wattles, esq. Those who knew Mr. I', when here a youth would hardly recognize the man of over six feet and weighing over two hundred pounds.

Rev. L. H. Pearce, who has been absent from the city several weeks in attendance upon the Washington Grove camp meeting, has returned home, and will have charge of the reguhe weekly prayer meeting in the M. E. Church

ANXIOUS FOR A DISCUSSION.-Masses, H. II. Riddleberger and John S. Wise, Mahone readjuster electors, who are to speak in this sity next Thursday night, have sent a letter to the Mahone Club here, expressing their willingness and desira to divide time with ary conservative speakers who may be brought forth. The secretary of the cou servative committee has been notified of the fact, and it is more than probable that the desire of the goatlemen in this particular will be

THE COAL TRADE. - The shipments from the mists of the Cumberland coal region for the Week ending Saturday, August 14, were 30,882 toos, and for the year to that date 1,264,070 loss, an increase of 260,557 tens as compared with the corresponding period of 1879. The shipments to the Chesarcake and Ohio canal were, for the week, 14,350 tons; for the year, 317.424 tons, a decrease of 4 604 tons as compared with last year.
